

The 1st Workshop on Behavioral Economics of Social Norm and Public Moral

Date: Thursday, March 16, 2017

Venue: Seminar Room #1 (2F) Osaka University Hall (Toyonaka Campus)

Sponsored by: Top-Setting Program to Advance Cutting-Edge Humanities and Social Sciences Research

10:00-10:50	Speaker: Yosuke Yasuda (Osaka University)	A Simple Economics of Inequality: Market Design Approach
10:50-11:40	Speaker: Lyla Zhang (Macquarie Graduate School of Management)	Goal Setting In Tournament With Sabotage: Theory and Experimental Evidence
11:40-11:55	Break
11:55-12:45	Speaker: Tomoharu Mori (Kansai University)	Ambiguity Aversion and Framing Effect in the Insurance Demand for Low-Probability Losses
12:45-14:00	Lunch Meeting
14:00-14:50	Speaker: Takahiro Miura (Graduate Student, Osaka University)	Measuring Risk Attitudes in a Laboratory Search Experiment
	Speaker: Manami Tsuruta (Graduate Student, Osaka University)	How Do Individual Time Preferences Get Aggregated in Groups?: The Laboratory Experiments
14:50-15:40	Speaker: Maros Servatka (Macquarie Graduate School of Management)	Status Quo Effects in Fairness Games: Reciprocal Responses to Acts of Commission vs. Acts of Omission
15:40-15:55	Break
15:55-16:45	Speaker: Erika Seki (Ritsumeikan University)	Public Goods Production in Heterogeneous Group: the Case of Solid Waste and Flood Risk Management in the Philippines
16:45-17:35	Speaker: Hodaka Morita (University of New South Wales)	A Behavioral Approach to the Theory of the Firm
18:15-	Reception @ Oyashiki Ganko (Japanese Restaurant)	